May Days ...

Library Book March
Monday 19th May
Rutland Centennial Celebrations
& Annual May Day's Parade
from 11am

Our craziest library promotion yet! In honour of Dolly Lucas who set-up a Rutland library more than 60 years ago, Library staff & a few courageous Friends will take to the streets! To celebrate the Rutland Library as you have never seen it before and promote its Summer Reading Club, there'll be amazing marching books, giant bookmarks, kids on decorated bikes, banners & balloons galore, and book cart surprises. Come cheer us on as we march from the YMCA, along Rutland Road, to a big party at Centennial Park.

It's all about our Libraries !

Catch the Summer 2008 City of Kelowna Sport & Recreation Guide delivered free to Kelowna households as of 4th June. On page 65, our Libraries Summer Reading Club programs are highlighted. All programs are free. In-person registration is required though, starting June 23rd.

Summer Reading Club 2008

All ORL branches will host a special visit by guest Dr Recycle presenting Junkology. Kids learn how to make cool toys from household junk! FOLs commitment to SRC programming continues with funding of over $3500 for crafts and prizes & guests for our local branches such as Croc Talk man at Rutland. Fun with fossils, heritage and magician Ali K. Zam at Mission; rainbow puppet shows & storytimes with craft downtown. ...and much more.

Kelowna Branch

downtown in the Cultural District on Ellis Street

Farewell & congratulations to Dawn Silver (Kelowna Branch Head Librarian) who departed in April for Ontario to lead the Orillia Public Library. Dawn's 3 years at the branch were marked by her energetic enthusiasm for making libraries the vibrant hub of their community's everyday life. Friends treated her to an appreciation tea & a gift of local Okanagan goodies. The process to appoint a new branch head librarian is underway.

Welcome to Amber Ritchie, new Youth Services Librarian who is in familiar territory having worked as an auxiliary with children's programming. With Summer Reading Club on the horizon, Amber is up for the challenges of steering a very creative crew in babies to teens programming and services.

Congratulations to Fern Teleglow who moved up to the position of Reference Supervisor. As Acting Branch Head, Fern engaged Friends to help host -

BC Book Prizes 2008 authors-on-tour evening Wednesday 23rd April. An audience of more than 25, applauded the 4 short-listed authors and a children's book illustrator as they read excerpts, and regaled us of their endeavours & road trip tales.

Mission Branch

in the Capital News Centre on Gordon Drive

For those who work or are busy during weekdays, or want a quiet reprieve from the hockey rink hustle, the Mission library is open for reading, browsing, surfing & borrowing on these evening & weekend hours:

Tuesday evening to 8pm; Saturday 10am to 5pm

Other branches evening & weekend hours :

Kelowna Tue,Wed,Thu to 9pm;Sat 10am to 5:30pm

Rutland Wed evening to 8pm; Sat 10am to 5pm

Rutland Branch

in the heart of Plaza 33 on Highway 33

Jungle Fun Unveiled at Rutland Library

A quilt funded by FOL and crafted by Friend and artisan, Bev Boyd was unveiled at a real jungley event, Friday 15th February. Fifteen toddlers were mesmerised by Cherie's lion hunt story & loved their jungle goodies bags. Bev, Mary Ann Graham (President, Rutland Residents Association), ORL's Lesley Dieno & Merilyn Bohn were special guests along with Friend and regular patron, John Watson. The muffin tea afterwards at Maggie's Café in the Plaza was a treat, thanks to Mary Ann & Lesley. Every time you look at the quilt, you will find more clever details to marvel at, in the story it tells, its fabrics & textures. A colourful half-page photo-story appeared in the March issue of SnapOkanagan.

Wishes do come true!

Kelowna - "Ask a Genealogist" Day", 19th April, hosted by the Kelowna and District Genealogical Society saw FOL recognised for our funding of a new digital microform reader-printer-scanner. A plaque in acknowledgement is attached. Kelowna is reputedly only one of 3 BC libraries using this latest model in research technology.

New on 2008 branch wishlists

At the May FOL Directors meeting, upwards of $23,000 in items were approved. Highlights include:

Mission – an electric fireplace, to create a cozy entrance corner under Bev Boyd's wall quilt, for fireside chats & future evening events. Watch for spectacular hanging décor in the children's area & custom-built furniture for inspiring displays.

Rutland - imagine the fun, with storyteller Cherie's new ukelele. Leading a trend in our branches, staff want to catch the eye of teens and tweens with a neon signboard for their special zone. Queue ropes & stands will make desk service more efficient.

Sale Report

March Madness Book Sale Saturday March 8th Kelowna Library

Wow! the craziness of this anniversary year begins with $3000 netted, a record for a first small sale in any year. On a busy few days, thanks to Ed, Grant, Vic, Nadir and Mary-Ellen. Directors also appreciated the help of Pat and Mark of the Kelowna branch. Cliff Hansen of Best Choice Car & Truck Rentals (Ryder) stepped up again with a generous deal in van hire, to move our book boxes. Leftover children's books were taken by a local charity working with a Ugandan NGO, Niteo Africa to ship a container to schools there. James Young and Snap Okanagan came up with a photo-story in their April issue; director Kendra was photographed on sale duty, for the Kelowna Capital News.

Upcoming FOL Book Sales

Saturday September 6th
International Literacy Day mini-sale downtown at the Kelowna Library

Kelowna Friends help across the Okanagan

40% of book sales proceeds from a number of book sales around the ORL every year, go to Regional Library HQ to help those branches who do not have the benefit of a Friends group to support them & for system-wide projects. Projects, typically undertaken every four or five years have included: for each branch, video racks when video collections were introduced in the early 1990s and checkout receipt printers with the automated circulation system. $60,000 was spent to establish the very popular QuickRead Collection in 2004 - 2005, after which the book budget took over funding.

Lesley Dieno (ORL Executive Director) says it best, in appreciation of you all, our book sales volunteers & sorting crew: "On behalf of the Library, and the Library Board, I would like to thank you for your donation of $11,762 from the profits of your [2007] Fall book sale. As ever, I am very impressed with the commitment and enthusiasm of the Kelowna Friends. You all do wonderful work!"

FOL-ORL advertising initiative

Kelowna FOL have signed an agreement with ORL to facilitate advertising of programs and services of the three Kelowna area library branches in local print media and directories. The trial funding, with a budget of $5000, will extend from January 2008 to March 2009. Directors were excited to see the Summer City of Kelowna Sport & Recreation Guide which contains the first of the sponsored ads, with our FOL logo included. This initiative fits well with Friends mission to enhance the profile of our libraries in the community & increase awareness and use of library programs and services.

Friends of Okanagan Libraries

Directors Lee, Ursula and Michelle represented Kelowna Friends at the Annual Gathering of the Friends of the Okanagan Libraries, May 3rd.

Hosted by Keremeos Friends, it was a great Saturday spent swapping ideas & applauding achievements with Friends from Salmon Arm & Sorrento to Westbank, Naramata, Summerland & Oliver. Keremeos Library staff & Friends spoil us with a mighty small town welcome from the biggest highway greeting sign at the Visitor Information Centre to home-baked treats to wonderful lucky draw prizes with distinct local flavours.

Salmon Arms Friends have volunteered to host the 2009 gathering.

ORL Library Board

City councillor, Barrie Clarke newly represents Kelowna on the Library Board. We look forward to a good liaison with Barrie, an active Library and FOL supporter in the past.

Library Board general meetings are scheduled for May 21, September 17 & October 15, in the Kelowna Library Meeting Room on Ellis Street.
