

19 ... going on 20 !

Friends 19th Great Okanagan Book Sale November 8-10, 2007 was a great success due to the hard work of our dedicated volunteers & the many months spent in sorting and preparing by our Barlee team and sale co-ordinators. Loyal members and new, encouraged family, friends, neighbours and colleagues to be eager shoppers. Some tinkled the ivories of the hall piano to entertain. Thanks to yet again another mighty effort from the crew of 2 Small Men with Big Hearts Moving Co, who cleared more than 1500 boxes from our Barlee house. Leftover children's books went to local schools and as faraway as a First Nations school on Vancouver Island. Other remaining books were purchased by Discover Books (Abbotsford) who specialize in recycling & redistributing containers of books, mostly to needy schools overseas.

THANK YOU ALL as the total funds raised amounted to close to $29,000!

Our Annual General Meeting took place on Saturday 17th November 2007 at the Kelowna Library, Ellis St.

After a Volunteers Appreciation breakfast, about 35 members heard of Friends many achievements over the year. Pam Medland, ORL Public Services Manager presented the ORL Executive's update on regional and provincial library developments that impact on our 3 libraries (see page 2 for highlights of Pam's report). New Directors were elected for the 2007-2008 term (see page 4 for details of the 20th Executive team). Guest Speaker Dan St Yves, author and eVent magazine columnist now based in Calgary, happily made the trip back home to his Kelowna library haunts. He left us laughing, in time for the holiday silly season, about the inspirations and trials of becoming a humor writer.

Winter 2008

Celebrating 20 years of Kelowna Friends

This Fall will mark the 20th year of Friends supporting Kelowna area libraries. We will celebrate the dedication, achievements, gifting and fun that Friends have shared. "Committee20" has been struck to gather ideas and begin the planning of special events and initiatives. Committee members are Rendina Hamilton, Allan Hustad, Donna Medved and Rosemary Stiell of the Friends and Dawn Silver, Kelowna Branch Head Librarian. If you have any suggestions or ideas, please contact Donna Medved at dmedved@shaw.ca or write to her at Friends mailing address, or contact any committee member.

Committee20 has met and enthusiastically discussed a number of initial possibilities including a Friends Appreciation Day with special guest, games and prizes and more; special events for children and the public at each of the three branches, and Friends participation in local events. Our annual fall Book Sale would also mark 20 years of greatly successful fundraising sales.

Share a reflection on the joys of reading!

It's all about our Libraries !

Take a look at the Winter 2008 City of Kelowna Sport & Recreation Guide delivered free to most Kelowna households last December. On page 70 there's a whole bunch of storytime programmes on offer at each library over the next months, for Easter, Spring Break and through to May. All free with no registration required.

Kelowna Branch

downtown in the Cultural District on Ellis Street

Farewell & congratulations to Kathryn Foley (Youth Services Librarian) who has moved onto a new library position in Idaho. Kathryn would be one of the most creative librarians & enthusiastic storytellers in the Okanagan. And she sure left the kids of the valley with great reading memories, as she criss-crossed the regional branches as part of the January Family Literacy Storytime Tour, traveling 2108 kms in just 3 weeks!

Free Computer Courses

Twelve different courses are offered free of charge to help adults explore computer basics. Courses are held on the second floor in the Computer Lab. They are scheduled from 10am until noon and include lots of real-time exercises. Classes in February & March cover introductions to computers & the internet plus basic word-processing, spreadsheeting and digital photo editing.

Check out the Computer Lab Schedule

Farewell & congratulations to Lee-Anne Wilson (Mission Branch Community Librarian) who retired at the end of December. As ORL's longest serving employee of 36 years, Lee-Anne has wholeheartedly contributed to many library roles. Even before her cherished 10 years with Mission branch, and including the gamut of public services at old Kelowna branches & cataloguing at HQ.

Friends treated her to an appreciation tea & gift of yarn. Lee-Anne resolves to enjoy this hobby & other projects in her retirement...including being a Friend!

Welcome to Annie Pope who in February took up the new position of Mission Branch Head Librarian. Annie is a familiar face and a very skilled librarian, having been the Reference Supervisor at the Kelowna Branch for many years. Friends are excited to join with Annie in planning new events & projects in this uniquely prominent library & rapidly expanding community and recreation locale.
