Styles for writing history

Good example of Chicago Style (footnoting & endnoting, bibliography etc.) can be found by looking through your textbook:

Margaret Conrad and Alvin Finkel, Canada: a National History 2nd ed, Toronto: Pearson Education Canada, 2007.

For a full source for this style, with examples see:

A Pocket Guide to Writing in History. Rampolla [also circulating collection] Ref D 13 .R295
